★★★★★ · January 2026 · Stayed one night

This place was perfect for an overnight stay. My daughter loved finding the hidden cats, and the cat theme throughout the home was so fun. The host was very helpful and quick to respond to anything we needed. I would definitely recommend this place for a family stay.

This was a great place to stay! Some friends and I were in town for Passion and wish we got to spend more time here! There were lots of board games and the living room was very cozy!

Very clean home. Super quiet neighborhood. We were only there for one night, and then off early in the morning, but we appreciated the home. Would definitely recommend this place to anyone traveling through Zeba is an excellent host. The home is clean, safe & comfortable. The extras like board games, fans, night lights, framed and well placed instructions make the home even more appealing. Neighborhood is quiet and easy to find. Easy check out routine. Highly recommended.

Our family had a great one night stay at Zeba's place. It was quiet, relaxing and a much needed getaway. I am also a huge board game person so it was great to see all the games to choose from. I highly recommend this to anyone needed a quiet getaway

My family of seven (including 5 teens) was very comfortable here. Great neighborhood. The space was peaceful and everything we needed for a quick stay. We would have loved to stay longer!
